Our Parent Partnership

Carnegie House Independent School believes in a partnership approach to the children's education. Parents and the school must work together to encourage each child to reach their own potential. To demonstrate this commitment, we expect parents to enter into a partnership agreement with the school.

How we do it

In a rich educational community, we offer an environment which embraces, respects and hears the individual, setting children on the path to independence. We follow the Montessori principles of respect for our-selves, others and the environment through vertical age grouping, the use of didactic educational material, an uninterrupted three-hour work period and a prepared environment. We align with and enhance the required government assessment standards and are affiliated with the relevant public and private bodies.

In return we expect parents to:

Encourage respect for the teachers

Respect school hours

Help foster a pride in the school and the uniform

Commit for an entire phase (3 year cycle)

Read all communication carefully: e-mails, Insight Newsletter

Pay school fees timeously

Sign the homework diary

Complete forms and tear-off slips on due date

Participate and help where needed

Attend parent evenings, functions and night school

Do one guest visit per year to share your profession, area of expertise or hobby during your time at Carnegie House

Our Core Values

1. We are very serious about education
2. We are visionary
3. We have inner strength and courage
4. We continually strive for improvement
5. We are committed and considerate

Our Pledge:

At Carnegie House, we pledge, that when you as a family commit to embrace the Carnegie House philosophy, we will realise and encourage your child's full potential through each phase of development.

All parents are asked to help in the school. Please indicate at least one area where you will be able to assist us (tear off):
